Let your light shine!

The sun eventually came out to join us on Sports Day on Friday. In the end I think we had perfect conditions for what turned out to be another fantastic event. The children all participated with their usual huge enthusiasm and I witnessed lots of incidents of great sportsmanship, support and teamwork throughout the day.

A great deal of planning goes into these events to make sure that the children all get the most out of the day. A bi-product of this is that the parents and families also get to come along too. I understand that the format of our sports days is not to every parent's taste but every decision that we make is first and foremost with the children in mind. We have had some very positive feedback this year from lots of parents so it is very encouraging to know that you enjoy these events as much as the children.

I would like to say a huge thank you to Mrs Cowan for the massive amount of time and energy that she has put into organising the day. I think she has already started planning for 2020. Mrs Cowan has also been busy all year making sure that all the children have had opportunities to take part in a massive variety of sporting events. Her hard work has earned our school yet another Sports Games Gold Award for our level of participation.

Our Summer Fair was also a huge success. Again we had the weather on our side and it was a really fun day for everyone that attended. The PTA did another marvellous job of organising the day. The amount of planning that goes into the Summer and Christmas Fairs is immense and the work that the small army of PTA helpers do in transforming the school (and return it back to normal again) every year is invaluable so thank you to everyone involved.

The Scrapshed (the PTA's latest purchase) has gone down a treat with the children so far. They have spent every lunchtime designing, creating and building all manner of dens and vehicles with the contents of the Scrapshed. It is wonderful to see just how imaginative our children are. They have also been extremely helpful when it comes to packing it all away so I hope this continues.

I have added the two final days to the list of training days for next year. I hope you appreciate that we have tagged them all on to the school holidays which may make things easier for booking a slightly cheaper escape somewhere.

Can I please remind you that the adventure trail and climbing wall are out of bounds for children before and after school. Whilst in the playground at this time, all children are the responsibility of the adults that they are with.

This week will be the final week for the majority of our Y6 children before they move up to high school for the start of their transition. It will be a busy week for them: rounders against the staff; fish and chip treat; leavers'
